

Leading European Rating Agency Issues

First AAA Score in U.S. to Coventry First

Fort Washington, PA – Coventry First, the leader and creator of the secondary market for life insurance, has earned a AAA rating from the Scope Group. Coventry First is the only U.S. funder of secondary market transactions to receive Scope’s highest rating.

The Scope Group, based in Berlin, is the only rating agency to issue quality ratings of companies specializing in transactions for the secondary market for life insurance. The rating provides an independent review of firms servicing German institutional investors. Of all rated U.S. firms operating in the secondary market, only Coventry First received an overall AAA (“best quality”) rating.

“This rating reflects an independent assessment of the tremendous opportunities now being created by the secondary market,” said Alan Buerger, CEO of Coventry First. “As firms like ours attract high-quality institutional funding into the market, it will create new opportunities for consumers and fuel further market growth.”

Following rigorous investigation and analysis, Coventry First achieved “best quality” ratings in numerous areas including market standing, management, company structure, investor structure, credit standing, current performance and financial strength.

“An overall score of ‘AAA’ shows the excellent quality of Coventry First services toward institutional clients. It is the highest rating to be achieved,” noted the Scope Report.
